

International Cooperation Center

@ICC

IC's Freshy Camp 2015

Create and Coordinate International Relations

@ICC

IC's Freshy Camp 2015

IN THIS ISSUE

During 18th – 21st August 2015, 101 students from the KMUTNB International College joined together in IC's Freshy Camp organized by International Cooperation Centre (ICC) & International College (IC). The main purpose of the Freshy Camp is to introduce new students to the KMUTNB International College, senior students were helped by ICC & IC staff.

During the first day all students introduced themselves and were informed about the campus and university regulations and activities. All students were warmly welcomed by Prof. Dr. Teravuti Boonyasopon, President of KMUTNB.

Create and Coordinate International Relations

@ICC

IC's Freshy Camp 2015

IN THIS ISSUE

Last three days all students from International College moved to Ratchaburi Province for many activities included fun games and cultural games which were a great opportunity to make new friends and know each other better.

On second day the activities were made indoor singing, dancing and games, after dinner four groups of students participated to a theater contest and prepared their own shows.

IC's Freshy Camp 2015

IN THIS ISSUE

The last day most of the activities were made outdoor with several funny games and before coming back to Bangkok the group stopped for a cultural visit.

