

International Cooperation Centre

KMUTNB's IDOL 2016

Create and Coordinate by International Relations

KMUTNB's IDOL 2016 - English Camp

From 31st May to 3rd June, International Cooperation Centre (ICC) organized KMUTNB's IDOL 6 - English Camp- for 69 students from King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok plus four students from National Kaohsiung First University of Science and Technology (First tech) Taiwan; four students from Brandenburg University of Technology Cottbus - Senftenberg Germany, two students from H-S Bremerhaven University Germany.

International Cooperation Centre

KMUTNB's IDOL 2016 - English Camp

Three days were spent at Phuphaphung Resort, Ratchaburi; students made activities, English lessons, quiz and games. All students were divided in three groups and were encouraged to speak in English and participate to all competitions in order to gain points and win the final contest for their team. During the second day there was also a Stage Performance called "English on Stage", three teams of students have interpreted and adapted a different stories like: Red Riding Hood, Beauty & the Beast and Aladdin & the Magic Lamp. Lectures for this IDOL 2016 were Asst. Prof. Dr. Supalak Nakhornsri from Faculty of Applied Arts Department of Languages who taught about KMUTNB history and ASEAN Community; Ms Vivien May Eddie from International College who taught about cultural differences among Western and Asian Countries; Mr Folefac Tanya Nkenqlefac from Faculty of Applied Arts Department of Languages who taught environmental and its effects. During these three days all Lectures also taught English grammar and Public Speaking.

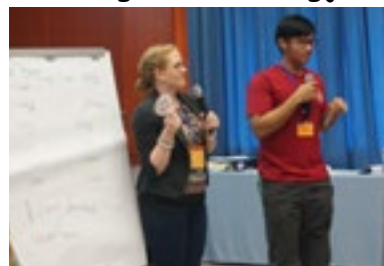

@ICC

International Cooperation Centre

KMUTNB's IDOL 2016 English Camp

On 3rd June at Benjarat Hall, Navamindra Rajini Building KMUTNB, Thai students challenged a public speaking competition. Before the competition started Ms. Sikan Kulchonchan, Vice-President for International Affairs gave a speech to inspire and encourage the competitors and motivate all the presents to speak English. Students answered one question from a group of questions related to the topic learned during the English Camp. Competitors have had five minutes to answer giving an articulate explanation of their answer; the winner of the KMUTNB's IDOL 6 English Camp is Ms. Onanong Kotwongjun.

@ICC