

2017 GKS for ASEAN countries' Science and Engineering Students

Managed by Keimyung University

Keimyung University proudly presents 2017 GKS(Global Korea Scholarship) for ASEAN countries' Science and Engineering Students Program that is run by Korean Government. This program invites outstanding students who are majoring in the field of Architecture and Civil Engineering at the universities and colleges of the 10 Southeast Asian Nations.

The purpose of this program is to provide students with an in-depth academic training as well as an invaluable experience in Korea. In addition, this program can help to nurture future leaders who will contribute to the development of global society and further friendship between Korea and their home country.

Application deadline for the program is April 30th, 2017 and we require all home institution coordinators to officially nominate their candidates via e-mail to intl@kmu.ac.kr. Students who are interested in this program are welcome to apply.
