

This year we are honored to invite King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok

It is our pleasure to announce that the Office of International Affairs (OIA) will soon be holding an International Summer School (CCU-ISS) on the theme of "Integration vs. Diversity." It will be much appreciated if we could have your kind support to promote the coming program.

CCU-ISS is an English-taught and interdisciplinary learning-by-doing program to cultivate global leadership. Last year, the event achieved tremendous success. More than 250 students from all over the world have participated in the program and returned with precious memory. This year we wish to make CCU-ISS an even more splendid event. It is our pleasure to welcome all potential students. Their participation is definitely the key towards success. Attached please find the program brochures and the nomination list. More information is available at:

<https://sites.google.com/view/ccu-2017iss/>

The website for program registration is now open. Potential students are invited to visit the above website and complete the registration.

Besides, to honor our Partner, CCU would like to provide the following extra benefit for not only friendship, but also hospitality. Special group discounts will be granted to students from our Partner universities. The rules are as shown in the table below.

Our courses are developed according to the theme "Integration vs. Diversity" and suitable for students from a variety of academic backgrounds. The program will enhance interdisciplinary knowledge and cultivate a diverse international perspective.

The contents of courses include philosophy of life, human rights and law, professional ethics, humanities, etc. Each class incorporates field trip, cultural activities and focuses on team work, interaction and learning by doing.

In order to enhance learning effect, our program arranges for students to participate in multiple course tracks, to participate in seminars on specific themes, to gain inter-cultural experiences, and so on. Based on the international friendship cultivated through our activities, a cross-border network of knowledge sharing will thus be established.
